

Legacy Awards

Cleo

PARKER
ROBINSON
DANCE

MAY 19, 2017 | 6:00 P.M. | CPRD THEATRE

6:00 p.m. Cocktails and light appetizers

6:30 p.m. Welcome by Cleo Parker Robinson, Founder/Artistic Director

6:45 p.m. A Performance by the CPRD Junior Youth Ensemble

7:10 p.m. Scholarship & Award Presentations by Felicia Swoope, Creative Campus Director

7:25 p.m. A Performance by the CPRD Youth Ensemble

8:00 p.m. Adjournment

RSVP by May 16, 2017 | Email Hillary Harding: Hillary@cleoparkerdance.org

I N S P I R I N G M O V E M E N T

Each year, CPRD provides additional scholarships ranging from 10 to 100% of monthly tuition.

The CPRD Scholarship Fund provides vital funds to deserving and diverse young dancers to help them develop into strong and versatile performers.

2016 Scholarships awarded: $6,000

For students to attend performances free-of-charge and enhance our partnership with schools. In 2016, 500 students attended Granny Dances to a Holiday Drum. Several hundred more will see Romeo & Juliet in April and May 2017.

CPRD Performance Scholarships Value: $10,000

The Curtis Fraser Scholarship Fund

honors his contribution to the world of dance.

Curtis Fraser Scholarships:

12 months of unlimited classes

The Morning Star Award honors the life and legacy of Ian James "Wally" Wallace by helping young dancers from 13 to 23 who exemplify outstanding service to the community and the world through the Arts.

Morning Star Award: $2,000