These relationships have been built on core values through a wonderful collaboration with Colorado Ballet in their Festival in Durham, NC, for three powerful performances that lifted audiences off their feet! Returning home, CPRD received the Partner of the Year Award at the Mayor’s Arts & Culture Impact Award recognizing lasting impact on arts and culture in Denver.

This year marks my fifth solar rotation as Executive Director for CPRD, and it is extremely gratifying to see seeds we planted yesteryear sprout and flourish. It’s my hope that you see yourselves in the highlights. It is because of each of you that Cleo Parker Robinson Dance continues to grow and thrive, and I thank you for all the parts you play.

Cleo Parker Robinson Dance continues to grow and thrive, to see seeds we planted yesteryear sprout and flourish. While the numbers reveal growth across the organization’s four pillars, it is the lasting impact on arts and culture in Denver that we celebrate the one-year anniversary of the Bachelor of Dance degree program developed in partnership with Metropolitan State University. At the end of the year, we were proud to celebrate the one-year anniversary of the Bachelor of Dance degree program.

WHAT MADE US PROGRESSIVE AS WE DEVELOPED CPRD THROUGHOUT THESE 49 YEARS?

Our desire to make art available to those who didn’t have access.

In bringing art to our community, we discovered ourselves within it, as well as the cultures we studied, performed, and shared.

TO THE DENVER COMMUNITY,
CELEBRATING OUR 50TH ANNIVERSARY

This Year in Review truly reflects the powerful 2019 that Cleo Parker Robinson Dance has experienced—largely from the profound support of our patron community for our organization.

Throughout our 49-year history, this level of commitment has helped us create and sustain an artistic mission and vision that serves not only our Colorado community, but the dance world as a whole. Now more than ever, we look forward to the continued involvement of our generous patrons who enable us to preserve CPRD’s legacy of promoting dance excellence. I am so excited to be gearing up to celebrate our 50th anniversary in a few short months (June 2020).

We value your continued attendance at our performances, your participation in our Academy’s diversity of classes, and your representation of Cleo Parker Robinson Dance throughout the world community as ambassadors of One Spirit, Many Voices.

I can’t wait to celebrate with you. If you would like to learn more about our 50th anniversary plans, or would like to be involved, please contact us at 303.295.1759.

In the Spirit of the Dance,

Cleo Parker Robinson Dance
